There's a young man that I know, his age is twen - ty one Comes, from down in south - ern Col - or - ra - do. Just got out of the ser - vice and he's look - in' for his fun; Some - day soon; go - in' with him Some - day soon.
 My par - ents can - not stand him 'cause he rides the ro - de - o My fa - ther says that he will leave me cry - in'. I would fol - low them right down the tough - est road I' know; some-day soon go - in' with him Some - day soon.

33

37

And when he comes to call my pa ain't got a good word to say;

41

guess it's 'cause he's just as wild in the young-er days.

45

So blow you old blue north - er

49

blow my love to me. He's driv - in' in to - night, from Cal - i -

53

for - nia. He loves his dammed old ro - de - o as 57

much as he loves me; Some-day soon; go - in' with him Some day

61

soon.
