3 OVER AT THE FRANKENSTEIN PLACE

CUE: "Besides, darling, the owner of the phone may be a beautiful woman, and you may never come back"

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It consists of four systems of music. The first system begins with a piano introduction marked 'Bright beat' and 'D' (chord), followed by a 'D/C bass' section. The piano part features a melodic line in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand, with a 'mf' (mezzo-forte) dynamic marking. The vocal line enters with the lyrics: 'Till ready (Janet) In the vel - vet dark-ness of the black - est night (Brad) I can see the flag fly I can see the rain'. The second system continues the piano melody and includes the lyrics: 'burn-ing bright just the same'. The third system features the lyrics: 'star be No mat - ter Some - thing bet - ter what or here for'. The fourth system concludes with the lyrics: 'who you are me (Brad & Janet) There's a'. The score includes various musical notations such as treble and bass clefs, key signatures (one sharp), time signatures, and dynamic markings.

A musical score for the song "Let's do the Time Warp again." The score is written for a piano and voice. The key signature is D major (two sharps: F# and C#). The time signature is 4/4. The piano part consists of a simple bass line with eighth and quarter notes. The vocal part begins with a rest, followed by the lyrics "Let's do the Time Warp a - gain." The melody is simple, with a long note for "a - gain." The score is divided into measures by vertical bar lines. Above the vocal staff, the letters F, C, G, D, and A are placed above specific notes, likely indicating fingerings or chords. The lyrics are written below the vocal staff.
