IN A PERSIAN MARKET.

Intermezzo-Scene.

ALBERT W. KETELBEY.

Synopsis.

The camel-drivers gradually approach the market; the cries of beggars for "Back-sheesh" are heard amid the bustle. The beautiful princess enters carried by her servants, (she is represented by a languorous theme, given at first to clarinet and cello, then repeated by full orchestra)—she stays to watch the jugglers and snake-charmer. The Caliph now passes through the market and interrupts the entertainment, the beggars are heard again, the princess prepares to depart and the caravan resumes its journey; the themes of the princess and the camel-drivers are heard faintly in the distance and the market-place becomes deserted.

"The camel-drivers gradually approach."

"The beggars in the market-place?"

(Sing) Back - sheesh, back - sheesh, Ah - - - - - lah,

* Back-sheesh = money

A page of sheet music for a vocal piece titled "Back-sheesh". The music is arranged for voice and piano, featuring five staves of musical notation. The lyrics are: "Back - sheesh, back - sheesh, Al - - - lah, Back - sheesh, back - sheesh, Al - - - lah, Emp - shi! emp - shi! emp - - shit", with a "gives ad lib." instruction. The piano part includes dynamic markings like "ff" and "s". The vocal line consists of eighth-note patterns.

* Empishi = get away.

"The beautiful Princess approaches."

Poco meno mosso.

A musical score for two voices (Soprano and Alto) and piano. The score consists of six staves of music, each ending with a repeat sign and a double bar line, indicating a section to be repeated. The vocal parts are in soprano and alto clefs, and the piano part is in bass clef. The music is set in common time. The vocal parts enter at measure 3, with dynamic markings p sostenuto and mf sonore molto espress.. The piano part provides harmonic support throughout. Measure 4 contains a melodic line with grace notes. Measures 5 and 6 show more complex vocal entries. Measure 7 begins with a forte dynamic. Measures 8 and 9 conclude the section. Measure 10 starts the repeat section, which ends at measure 12. Measures 13 and 14 conclude the piece.

The first section of the score consists of three staves. The top two staves represent the vocal parts (Soprano and Alto) in G major, 2/4 time. The vocal parts are characterized by eighth-note patterns, some of which include grace notes and slurs. The third staff represents the basso continuo, providing harmonic support with sustained notes and vertical stems.

"The market-place becomes deserted."

The second section of the score consists of two staves. The top staff represents the soprano voice, which continues the melodic line from the previous section. The basso continuo part remains present, providing harmonic support. The score concludes with a dynamic marking 'sf' (sforzando) followed by the word 'Fine.'
