

VERY EARLY

Music by Bill Evans
As Played on Moonbeams

Figure 11—Solo

“Very Early” would be a good choice for a first Bill Evans transcription. The solo begins after two complete statements of the theme. It is not too long or difficult, yet we hear all of the quintessential Evans techniques: close-position left hand, chords of omission, left- and right-hand rhythmic doubling, motivic development, and rhythmic variety.

Evans uses an active left hand for much of this solo. Note how the left doubles many of the important rhythms in the solo line. As we have seen in many of these transcriptions, Evans uses vertical chord outlines to great effect. A good example occurs in measures 35–40, where he develops an interesting arpeggiated pattern.

Measures 41–44 provided a transcribing challenge. This passage transcends the bar line! Listen to the accompanying CD or Evans’s original recording to get a clear idea of the phrasing for this passage.
